Dear Children ,

Welcome to your "Me and Myself" Character Writing Workbook!

This workbook is just for you, and I hope you have lots of fun using it.

Each page has three tasks: A, B, C & D.

- Task A is a nice easy start.
- Task B is a bit more of a challenge.
- Task C helps you think even harder.
- Task D shows how brilliant you have become.

You can try as many tasks as you like. Do them in order and take your time. Read the instructions for each task carefully so you know what to do. If a task makes you want to write more or draw more, you can carry on , on another page — it's great to show your ideas!

Please don't skip ahead to later worksheets, even if you feel excited. Working through the pages one by one helps you learn best.

At the back of your workbook, you'll find smiley faces. After each lesson , colour in the smiley face that shows how you feel about your learning. It's your special way to see how well you're doing.

I hope you enjoy learning Mandarin and have a great time using this workbook. You're going to do brilliantly!

Best Wishes,

Suzanne Webster,
